DB's Dabblings: I know we had a lot of members out of town last Sunday night, but I am sure all you who attended the 4th Sunday Night Family Meeting appreciated the information that was shared. We had a very encouraging report about VBS and the blessing it was to our members, as well as the several visitors we had this year. Chad Gilley gave a report on the plans for the work on the building and an update on the Youth Minister Search. The Elders and Building Committee expressed their appreciation for the special contribution and Chad explained the 3 phase work to be done on the roof followed by the internal remodel. We need $350,000! The Search Committee has narrowed the candidates for the Youth and Family Minister and we are on track to have one here to work with us before school starts. Bob Doty, for the Missions Committee, shared with us the tremendous work that Stanley Shereni is doing in the Zimbabwe prisons where thousands have been baptized. He also shared the tremendous difficulty Stanley, who walks everywhere, is having due to terrible foot pain and is needing immediate medical attention. $505 was collected to assist Stanley. Bob expresses thanksgiving to everyone who helped and encourages you all to be in prayer. We heard a wonderful report about 4 new families that have been helped through Basic Needs who have now started working in the program to help other families and some are attending church and are involved in Bible Studies. We also reported information about the great outreach Jacob Bautista is involved in this summer and prayed for his Mexico Mission Trip.
